Endurance Rapa Nui

November 2010

Endurance X and the new 5-star Hangaroa Eco Village Spa Hotel invite you to enjoy an unforgettable experience in one of the most mystical and enigmatic places on Earth. Easter Island or Rapa Nui as known by the natives with a history dating back nearly fifteen centuries since first occupied by man. In the last century the first navigators brought horses to the island and the natives incorporated them for daily use. Today the island's horses will compete in an Endurance Ride. This first equestrian championship of Endurance riders will compete through the ancestral fields only a few meters from the great "Ahu Tahai" giving the island one of the most amazing sunsets. Riders will see and feel the mystical and magical sculptures called MOAI. Officials organizing this event along with the warmth of the Rapa Nui people Endurance X welcomes competitors and visitors for the November 19-22, 2010 event from around the world. The island is in the center of the South Pacific, a 4 hour flight with Lan Airlines from Santiago de Chile. Reserve Early - Limited to 40 riders - www.endurancex.com
